Tips for the “Lazy Gardener” Offered at Free LVMWD Class

CALABASAS, CA Sept 22, 2011 – Las Virgenes Municipal Water District

(LVMWD) will offer a free class for its customers entitled “California Native Plants for the Lazy Gardener” on Thursday, October 13 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Presented by noted horticulturalist Barbara Eisenstein, the class will demonstrate how it’s possible to have an attractive, water-efficient garden while minimizing the time and effort needed for maintenance.

“Autumn is a great time to plan your garden for next year and the time is always right to think in terms of a more water-efficient landscape that blends in with our region’s surroundings,” said John R. Mundy, LVMWD’s General Manager.

Pre-registration is required, which can be done at the District’s website, www.LVMWD.com, customers without web access may call 818.251.2200 during regular business hours to register; walk-ins will not be admitted. A complimentary light meal will be provided to participants.

Las Virgenes Municipal Water District provides potable water, wastewater treatment and recycled water service to some 67,000 people in the cities of Agoura Hills, Calabasas, Hidden Hills, Westlake Village and surrounding unincorporated areas of Los Angeles County.
