

Ed McCombs

Biography

Ed McCombs, former General Manager of the Las Virgenes Municipal Water District passed away on June 28, 2024. He was 90 years old.

Mr. McCombs served as the General Manager for the Las Virgenes Municipal Water District from 1986 – 1992.

Mr. McCombs was instrumental at the District and oversaw the implementation of many significant capital improvement projects during his tenure at the District. These included multiple expansion projects at the Tapia Water Reclamation Facility, design and construction of the Westlake Treatment Facility as well as early planning and design of the Rancho Composting Facility.

Ed McCombs also served as City Manager for the City of Ventura from 1970 – 1981, and as Commissioner for the Ventura Port District from 2002 – 2012.